DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 4/8/2010 has been entered.

Arrangement of the Specification

2. As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.

- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A “Sequence Listing” is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required “Sequence Listing” is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –
(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7-16, 20-22, and 25-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Shah (US 5,897,941).

Shah discloses a co-extruded, oriented film (col 5, line 45+) comprising a core layer of HDPE or HDPE blended with LDPE (col 3, lines 53+), sandwiched between two skin layers made of low density polyethylene. The film exhibits a haze of less than about 15% (see tables), more preferably below 5%, a CD shrinkage between 0%-50%psi (see tables) and a 2% secant modulus greater than about 50,000 psi (abstract).

With regard to claim 8, the melt index is inherent to the materials utilized in the examples (e.g. see Dowlex 2045).

Shah does not explicitly mention the cross directional shrinkage force for the film but said film is understood to inherently meet said limitation since it is compositionally identical to the claimed film. Thus, unless the Applicant can provide convincing arguments (e.g. in the form of comparative examples) showing that the product does not exhibit the desired cross directional shrinkage force, said property is understood to be inherent because the film of Shah is compositionally and structurally identical.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Shah (US 5,897,941), as applied to claims above.

Shah is relied upon as above, but does not explicitly teach the claimed melt index. However, if said characteristic is not inherent to the polymers taught in Shah, it would have been obvious to the skilled artisan at the time the invention was made to optimize the melt index of the composition taught in Shah in order to improve the film's processing characteristics.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 4/8/2010 have been fully considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.
